
Borders: Museums in an Age of Mobility

Tuesday June 6, 2017

Participants arrive in Mexico City

Hotel Casa de la Condesa

Plaza Luis Cabrera 16

Roma Norte, 06700 Cuauhtémoc, CDMX Tel. 55 55 843089

6:30 pm Welcoming Reception Terreno Baldío Arte
Orizaba 177 in the corner of San Luis Potosí
Roma Norte, 06700 Cuauhtémoc, CDM

8:00pm Dinner as a Group
Plaza Luis Cabrera 7 (across the plaza from the hotel)
Roma Norte, 06700 Cuauhtémoc, CDM

Wednesday June 7, 2017

■ Roundtable sessions: Who are we as scholars and how do our social and historical contexts define us? We start Day One with lightning-talk introductions given by each participant, in order to help familiarize group members with each other.

8:45 am Pick-up from the Hotel transport to UDLAP Jenkins Graduate School
Paseo de la Reforma 180 -16
Juárez, 06600 CDMX

9:30 am Lightning Talks (part I)

11.00 am Coffee Break

11.30-1:00pm Lightning Talks Continued

1:00-2:30pm Lunch El Bajío Restaurant
Reforma 222 Juárez, 06600 CDMX

2:30pm Lightning Talks (part II)
Discussion Session: A Social Geography of Museums?
Leads: Morgan, Diana and Gwyn

4:00-4:30pm Coffee Break

4:30pm Group Discussion

5:30-7:00pm Mexican Craft market Mercado de los Insurgentes Londres,
entre Florencia y Amberes Juárez, 06600 CDMX

7:00pm Reception
UDLAP Jenkins Graduate School Sky Garden
Paseo de la Reforma 180 -35
Juárez, 06600 CDMX

Thursday June 8, 2017

- What are the dynamics that link or separate museologies around the globe? What are the connections and intersections that bring people, ideologies and things together? How do museums engage with Borders and the movement of people?
- Day Two is made up of three roundtable discussions that explore the concept of intellectual and physical borders and what these mean for museums and museology. Participants will present their work and then work as a group for the roundtable discussion.

8:45 am Pick-up from the Hotel transport to Casa Wabi
Dr. Atl 62 Santa María la Ribera, 06400 CDMX

Round Table Sessions (part I)

9:30 am Subversive Museologies, Undergrounds and Anthropological Critiques.
Lead: Anthony Shelton

11.00 am Coffee Break

11:30-1:00pm Pluralist Museologies Lead: Morgan Perkins

1:00 – 2:30pm Lunch María Ciento38 and visit to the Museo Universitario del Chopo

2:30pm Open and Closed Museologies: Politics, Censorship, Race, Context, Dialogues Lead: Diana Marsh

4:00pm Transport to Museo Nacional de Antropología

7:00pm Dinner Los Almendros Restaurant
Calle Campos Elíseos 164, Polanco, 11560, CDMX

Friday June 9, 2017

- Question: How do we utilize funding and publications to mobilize the ideas from this workshop? Who are the audiences and what impact do we seek?

Build museum global network

- On Day Three, the group will finish roundtables exploring the concept of intellectual and physical borders and what these mean for museums and museology. The group will then produce plans for a longer-term exhibition project, publications, future funding and a statement on museums and heritage in the current political environment.

8:45 am Pick-up from the Hotel transport to
UDLAP Jenkins Graduate School
Paseo de la Reforma 180 -16 Juárez, 06600 CDMX

Round Table Sessions (part II):

9:30 am Museums, Migration, Mobility: Borders, Art and Public Engagement
Lead: Gwyneira Isaac

10:45 am Coffee Break

11:15-12:00pm Museums, Migration, Mobility: Borders, Art and Public Engagement
Continued

12:00-1:00pm Museums, Borders and Resistance: Advocacy and Building a Network
Leads: Nuno Porto and Laura Sunnucks Osorio

1:00-2:30 pm Lunch Fonda El Refugio

2:30 pm Next Steps: Publications and Funding
Leads: Gwyneira Isaac, Diana Marsh, Anthony Shelton

3:30- 3:45 pm Coffee Break

3:45-4:30 pm Closing Discussions and Remarks

4.30 pm Transport to Downtown Mexico City—Visit to the Exchange of views with officials of the Minister of Foreign Affairs of México

6:00 pm Museo de las Culturas
Moneda N° 13 Centro Histórico, 6010 CDMX

7:30 pm Dinner Limosneros Restaurant
Av. Ignacio Allende 3 Centro Histórico, 06010 CDMX